LEO NEWELL'S RIVERSIDE STAKES.

The largest crowd of the week was present at Harlem yesterday and witnessed some splendid sport. Surprises were the order of the day and the bookies "cleaned up" in great style.

The greatest shock to form occurred in the Riverside Stakes, which was taken in a drive by Leo Newell, which showed a dull race behind Banish August 13. Pat Dunne's entry, consisting of Toah and Silurian, was favored by the talent, but the best the popular turfman could do was to run second and third. Toah was undoubtedly the best, but was bumped far out of the race at the first turn, losing some ground, and in making it up at the latter end of the race had to exert himself so much that he had nothing left to finish with and was unable to stall off Leo Newell's strong bid at the end. To a splendid start Silurian darted into the lead, closely followed by Leo Newell and Elmer L., with Toah and Lady Strathmore bringing up the rear. Moving down the backstretch the last named made up the ground quickly she had lost by being bumped at the first turn and throatlatched Silurian, the two passing the half two lengths in front of Leo Newell, with the others well bunched. There was little change in these positions until well straightened; for home, where Toah moved up fast and joined his stable companion. Along in here Elmer L. moved up with the leaders, having saved much ground by hugging the inside rail at the stretch turn. It appeared very much like Toah at the last sixteenth post, but Leo Newell came with a rush next to the inside rail and the two hooked up for a running finish, the latter winning on the post by the shortest of margins, with Silurian four lengths away. The last named tired badly in the last sixteenth, as did also Elmer L. Telemon was moving fast at the end and would have been third in a few more strides. Lady Strathmore died away to the rear just before turning into the run in.

Jaubert proved an easy winner in the youngster scramble at six furlongs, although the time, 1:15½, stamps the race as a poor one from a time viewpoint. Gallagher, on the strength of his good second to Ed Austin in the Youngster Stakes, was made a decided favorite, but the best the $5,000 beauty could do was to run second. Ameerah, accompanied by Prue, set the pace for the first quarter, with Jaubert and Gallagher, close up. Just before turning for home Jaubert moved up to the leaders, Helen Print and Gallagher also joining the trio. Straightening for the wire Prue fell away beaten and Helen Print gave up the struggle. Jaubert had little trouble then in shaking off Ameerah and assuming an easy command, winning by almost four lengths. Gallagher and Ameerah had a sprinted tilt for second place, the former outgaming the latter in the closing strides. McChesney ran a dull race and can do much better.

Master Mariner had on his running clothes yesterday and easily took a fair field of sprinters into camp, negotiating the six furlongs in 1:18½. He was lucky to get off in front of a field of fifteen and after shaking Della Ostrand off at the first quarter was never afterward in trouble, winning easily by two lengths from Goal Runner which beat Rosa Diaz a head for second place. Revanna was fourth lapped on. Goal Runner, off poorly, was badly messed about before reaching the head of the stretch but when he got through to clear sailing he ran past horses and was closing fast at the end. Van Hornebeke was right there for five and a half furlongs.

A cheap lot of selling platers went to the post in the first race, the talent being all at sea as to which was the best. The winner turned up in Hanan, which won a lucky victory on the post from Fox Bard. The latter, had he been able to get through in time, would certainly have won, as he closed resolutely after trailing back of his field to the head of the stretch. Onoto was third two lengths away.

The third race, a dash of one mile, for three-year-olds and upward, was taken by Denman Thompson, which made his run just before entering the stretch and easily passed the leader, Zacatoso, in the final eighth, winning by two and a half lengths, with the latter a length and a half in front of Hyllo. Hyllo ran well for seven furlongs and then began to tire badly. Emma C. L. had enough at the head of the stretch, while Pirate's Queen, after being thrown clear out of the race by being cut off at the first turn, was never afterward a contender.

The last race of the day was won by Searcher which proved himself to be much the best. He appeared to be beaten while going down the back stretch in next to last position, but after the first half had been run he began to pick up his field and gradually forged to the front getting clear in the last sixteenth. He moved away fast from the last sixteenth post and won in the easiest manner possible by three lengths. Brutal which ran in much improved form came strongly in the last hundred yards and got second place by a half length from Kunja, which also came with a rush at the end.

Leo Newell's last two contradictory races are under investigation by the Harlem Jockey Club stewards.

Goal Runner was claimed by H. Robinson out of the second race yesterday for $850, and bought back by T. H. Ryan for $1,050.

Jockey Sullivan was fined $50 by Judge Hamilton for interfering with Hyllo and Emma C. L. in the third race.

Coburn will be in shape to ride Saturday and will probably have the mount on The Conqueror II. in the Harlem Handicap.

The stewards after a thorough investigation have taken action on the recent racing of Alaska and will refuse his entry in future at Harlem. This bars the horse from racing on any track under the jurisdiction of the Western Jockey Club.

SARATOGA GOSSIP.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 15.—The crack lightweight Cochran had a narrow escape from serious injury when he fell off Mercer in the first race and was unable to ride his engagements out during the afternoon. He has recovered from the shock, however, and will be in the saddle tomorrow.

Wax Taper's entry will be refused hereafter for an indefinite period. The stewards so announced this afternoon.

The plunging Swede, Charles Ellison, took more than $20,000 out of the ring at the close of today's operations. He started out with a big losing bet on his own horse Montanie, but more than recouped on Flora Pomona, winning a tremendous amount over her victory, in which he was followed by the entire western contingent, Thomas H. Williams, Jr., figuring as one of the heaviest winners.

Schorr has only started horses in four races so far and has won them all, three being credited to his good colt Harner.

George Rose lost a fortune on the day. Eddie Burke, who divides with the Californian the honor of being the foremost layer in the country, on the contrary, won $15,000 through having backed the first three winners. Frank Eckert bet $100 each way at 30 and 5 on Baron Pepper, the winner of the Kenner Stakes, with every back laying the price.

The great Whitney colt, Nasturtium, worked between the first and second races five furlongs, the fractional time being 1:11, 2:31, 3:51, 4:41, 1:01, with a big husky lad in the saddle. It was a marvelous trial and was so pronounced by all who witnessed the performance.

SARATOGA FORM CHART.

Winner—B. c. by Inspector B. Fronie Louise.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Alfred Vargrave was best. He is fast, game and a stayer and a very useful horse. Hammock appeared to be the winner almost throughout, but was outgamed at the end by the winner. On a heavy track Hammock will beat better horses. Barbara Frietchie, off poorly and badly handled, closed ground throughout and will be hard to beat at a mile or over from now on. Little Daisy was outclassed and is best in mud. Guess work displayed fine speed for seven furlongs, but quit in the stretch and no doubt lacked in condition. Barretto when placed among slower ones will be heard from.

Scratched—27273 Lone Fisherman, 108; 27390 Gertrude Elliott, 98.

Overweights—Hardsell, 3 pounds.

Alfred Vargrave, show, 8 to 5. Hammock, show, 1 to 2. Barbara Frietchie, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. h. by Amphion—Isis.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second cleverly. Isidor is in great form, outclassed the field and galloped unextended from start to finish. Ben Mac Dhui ran a good race and was easily the best of the others as weighted. Kilogram finished strongly, but was poorly handled and allowed to swerve all over the stretch. Montanic quit early. Wax Taper ran badly. Speedmast was outclassed, but failed to show any of her old time speed.

Scratched—27411 Chuctarunda, 119; (26957) Colonel Padden, 118; 27443 Specific, 114; 27367 King Pepper, 113; 27422 Agnes D., 96; 27442 Belle's Commoner, 95.

Winner—Ch. c. by Kantaka—Bonnie Lass.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. A steady downpour made the track damp and soft. Baron Pepper, a good class colt, benefited greatly by this and the fast pace and fierce rivalry between supposed contenders, all of which tired in the last furlongs. He came with a rush right at the end after appearing to be soundly beaten on the stretch turn. All Green was favored by the soft going and put up a thoroughly game, honest race. Black Fox was under a choking pull to the stretch and when called on, responded and appeared like winning, but tired and quit right at the end. He was easily the best horse in the race and on a fast track would have had an easy thing of it and is in grand form. The Rhymer set a fast pace and showed much speed, but simply failed to stay.

Scratched—27411 The Parader, 126; 27368 Vitellius, 110; Arak, 106; 25799 Golden Grain, 100. Corrected weights—All Green, 120. No show bettings.

Winner—B. f. by Florist—Fannie Willoughby.

Went to post at 3:36. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Flora Pomona ran to her best western form and finished fast and strongly. Playlike is greatly improved and ran and finished well. Oclawaha quit badly in the run through the stretch. Dark Secret fell out of the race on the far turn but was closing strongly at the end and was undoubtedly much handicapped by the going. Watch for better form on a fast track and especially over a longer distance. The others were outclassed although Dragoman has been well tried.

Scratched—27392 Mary Worth, 105; 26985 Cassville, 100; 27469 High Carnival, 97; 26851 Trump, 95; 27469 Step Onward, 95.

HARLEM HANDICAP STARTERS.

The Harlem Handicap, to be run tomorrow,
will be by far the most important stake that has come to the point of decision in Chicago since Cambrian carried off the pelf and honors of the Monadnock Stakes at Hawthorne. It should and no doubt will be contested by a fine field. The handicap horses that have been raced in Chicago this year have been of exceptionally good class and have fortunately been remarkably free from accidents and sickness so that many of the best are still here sound and in condition to repeat the performances that have adorned the local racing campaign. The Harlem received a goodly entry and of the picked ones, it seems that the following at least should go to the post:

Horse.	Wt.	Horse.	Wt.
Advance Guard	124	Pink Coat	117
Sidney Lucas	116	Robert Waddell	110
John Bright	108	The Conqueror II	107
Vulcan	106	George Arnold	104
Vesuvius	104	Favonius	102
Rolling Boer	95	Lady Strathmore	93
Lady Elite	90	Brutal	90

Of course some of these may not start and some not named here may be sent to the post but at any rate it is apparent that the material is here to furnish a high-class and exciting contest.

CALIFORNIA RACING.

Mr. J. W. Brooks, Racing Secretary of the California Jockey Club, writes as follows concerning the racing that is to take place next fall and winter over the San Francisco tracks:

"The coming racing season of 1901-02 will be given under the auspices of the new California Jockey Club. There are many reasons why the coming season should be a most successful one,
because the interest of all lovers of the sport
of kings will be concentrated under this one racing banner.

"First of all there is the new California
Jockey Club, with its capital stock of $1,000,000, of which three-fourths is owned by Mr. Thomas

H. Williams, Jr., Colonel D. M. Burns, Clarence
P. Waterhouse and other members of the old California Jockey Club, while the other quarter of the stock of $250,000 is owned by some of the most prominent business men of San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and Los Angeles.

"The next reason is that the horsemen will be united, as they must work for the interest of the owners of the track so as to enable them to offer large purses and greater inducements for horsemen to come from all sections of the country.

"Good horses can no longer dodge each other by waiting through one meeting to race at another. This alone will insure many high class races and will be of great benefit to the betting fraternity, as horses cannot race badly at one track and well at another, as has been the case,
without official action being taken.

"Another innovation for the good of all is the employment of two of the greatest starters in America, Messrs. Dwyer and Holtman, who will officially alternate during the season. This will also enable the handicapper to secure far better and more evenly balanced fields than when the racing associations were in existence,
as horsemen when dissatisfied with the weights cannot keep their horses in the stable waiting to see what would be allowed them by the hand-icapper of the other association. They must run to show the handicapper if they have been treated too harshly and others too leniently, as the result of the race is the only real way to demonstrate who is right or who is wrong.

"Another reason advantageous to all is that the racing will continue at the separate tracks
for a period longer by two weeks than formerly.
In this way owners will be saved many dollars in transportation. The season will open at Tanforan November 2, at a time of the year when the weather is pleasant, and finish upon the Oakland course, where it is always mild.

"This new club will offer in stakes and purses for the 151 days beginning November 2d and ending May 15th about $375,000. There will be twenty-five stake events set for the Saturday of each week. There will be specials and handicaps of from $500 to $1,000 in value for each Thursday. The Burns handicap of $10,000 will still be the feature of the season. The nineteen stakes that have been made in addition to the sixteen old ones have been so arranged as to bring the best horses of all ages and at all distances together.

"Owing to the large amount of racing given by the State Agricultural Association this season, beginning at Sacramento with twelve days
from September 2 to September 14, inclusive;
then the Oakland Racing Association of Alameda county, with eight days at the Oakland track, beginning September 16 and ending September 24; and then Los Angeles for thirteen days, September 28 to October 12, inclusive, there will be from 500 to 600 good horses fully prepared to participate at the very beginning of the regular meeting.

"This should enable the new California
Jockey Club to offer to its patrons high class racing each day of the entire season."

Went to post at 4:10. At post 18 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Lucent put up a very game race but was lucky to beat such an evidently superior class colt as Arak, which displayed brilliant speed but lost several lengths by making a wide stretch turn. The first two are good three-year-olds and will win in better company. Advocator got a bad start and being carried wide lost several lengths on the first turn but closed a big gap, acts like a stayer and is an improved colt. Sharpshooter was under a choking pull for six furlongs and a bad ride through the stretch settled his chances. He will probably show to better advantage on a fast track. The Bluecoat showed a fine burst of speed. The others are bad ones.

 Winner—Ch. g. by Hanover—Brandolette.
 Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Hanan came with a rush on the outside and just got up in time to nail Fox Bard on the post. The latter also came fast on the inside rail after trailing back of the field to the head of the stretch. Onoto tired in the last sixteenth when she appeared all over the winner. My Chicken ran well for six and a half furlongs and then faded away. Mary Moore quit at the head of the stretch. It was as poor a lot as could well be sent to the post.
 Overweights—Faraday Jr., 4 pounds; Onoto, 1; Miss Conrad, 1.

 Winner—Ch. g. by Mariner—Marinette.
 Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next two driving. Master Mariner, off well, was luxuriant of speed and was never in trouble at any part of the race. Goal Runner, off poorly, never got clear sailing until the spread at the head of the stretch came. He closed up fast in the last eighth and was running past horses at the end. Rosa Diah finished strongly and ran a good race. Revanna came from nowhere with a surprising rush in the last sixteenth. He bears watching from now on. Dr. Walmsley was tiring in the last hundred yards. Van Horebeke and Emma R. showed early speed.
 Overweights—Len x, 1 pound.
 Master Mariner, show, 4 to 5. Goal Runner, show, 1 to 2. Rosa Diah, show, 4 to 1.

 Winner—B. g. by Deceiver—Ramona.
 Went to post at 3:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Denman Thompson assumed an easy lead when turning into the stretch and won almost as his rider pleased. Zacatoso ran a surprisingly good race and was easily the best of the others. Hylo showed speed, but had enough when an eighth out, and the same may be said of Emma C. L. Davison's ride on Pirate's Queen was very poor. He got her cut off while going around the first turn, losing four or five lengths and then messed her all about completely destroying whatever chance she had. Hop Scotch ran well for a half mile.
 Scratched—27496 Frank Ireland, 105.
 Denman Thompson, show, 2 to 5. Zacatoso, show, 6 to 5. Hylo, show, 7 to 10. Pirate's Queen, show, 1 to 3.

 Winner—Br. g. by Aerolithe—Kate Harper.
 Went to post at 4:10. At post 2 minutes. Start excellent. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Leo Newell finished with great gameness on the inside rail in the last sixteenth. Toah was the best. He and Lady Strathmore were knocked clear off their stride at the first turn. In making up the lost ground it took much out of Toah and materially affected his chances in the final drive. Silurian had enough when an eighth out. Elmer L. saved ground by hugging the inside rail at the stretch turn and seemed to have a chance at the last eighth post, but died away thereafter. Teleman was always outrun, but finished strongly. Lady Strathmore quit at the head of the stretch. The winner was bid up to $1,200 by F. W. Doss and bought in.
 Leo Newell, show, 8 to 5. Toah, show, evens. Silurian, show, out. Lady Strathmore, show, out.

 Winner—Br. c. by Asra—Mishap.
 Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Jaubert rushed into the lead when turning into the stretch and simply cantered away from his field. Gallagher finished with a rush, nailing Ameerass in the last few strides for second place. The latter showed speed for five furlongs and then began to tire. McChesney ran a dull race and can do much better. Prue ran well for a half.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Searcher was much the best and came away easily in the last eighth after trailing back of his field. Brutal ran in much improved form and finished fast and strongly. Kunja closed up fast in the last eighth. MacGyle quit badly in the last sixteenth. Boney Boy ran well for seven furlongs and then faded away. Rollick had enough after running well for six furlongs.

 Went to post at 3:02. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Sambo, off well and well ridden, was much the best. Lady Clarik, a bit short, showed speed and ran a game race. Florrie S. was poorly ridden, but came fast in the stretch and finished well. Aulej ran a fine race under a weak rider and will do presently. Anything, a green fly high in condition, showed considerable speed. Lady Felix also showed a flash of speed for an eighth.
